In reverse I was in the snowy mountains somewhere. Someone that looked like my mum was there I told her everyone said a blizzard was coming it was a clear sunny day I said give me the keys Ill drive. I gave 3 people gas for there car. I gave smokes to a guy. Two Caucasian people spy like said is a Blizzard coming and there was a blizzard there already. I was in a cubical of some sort and there was someone that looked like my cousin inside he was trying to insult me I can see you in there faggot, I started creating beams of light with my hands and start to redesign the cubical we are in. Now I out side and that's where it started to the best of my memory.
